

Animal Group	Characteristics
Mammal 	Breathes with lungs Gives birth to live young Has hair or fur Warm-blooded Feeds babies milk
Fish 	Breathes with gills Lays eggs in water Has fins and scales Cold-blooded
Bird 	Breathes with lungs Lays eggs with hard shells Has feathers Warm-blooded
Reptile 	Breathes with lungs Lays eggs on land Dry, scaly skin Cold-blooded
Amphibian 	Born with gills then develops lungs Lays eggs in water Moist skin Cold-blooded Lives on land or water

Year 3 / 4

Living Things

Identify living things in the local environment

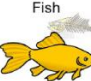

Use a simple classification key to identify animals and plants in the local environment.

Use a Venn diagram to classify animals into different groups based on their characteristics.

Vocabulary

vertebrate	  Vertebrates Click an animal to find out more   	Animals with a backbone invertebrate	Invertebrates        	Animals without a backbone